

SECOND CIRCULAR

September 2024

Through this second circular, the Organizing Group of the IV International Congress of Research on Anarchism(s) informs students, academics, and researchers, with or without a university education, and those interested in participating in this event, that the deadline for submitting abstracts has been extended until September 30, 2024.

The Congress will be held in Santiago, Chile, from October 8 to 11, 2025. The first three days will take place at the Universidad de Santiago de Chile (USACH), while the closing day will consist of an anarchist book fair, to be held at a relevant venue yet to be determined.

The IV International Congress of Research on Anarchism(s) is an in-person event, as it seeks to facilitate the immediate exchange of ideas, debate, and collaboration, enriching the collective experience and enabling the creation of networks. However, the possibility of presenting papers in a virtual format will be considered.
